

A FREE LECTURE PRESENTATION

“PEACE AND WATER”

KEN SASAKI

President of Hiroshima Kokusai Gakuin University

Saturday, December 20, 2014

TIME : 10:00–11:30 Lecture
11:30–12:00 Q&A

LOCATION : Hiroshima City
International House
Seminar Room 1/2
(2nd floor)

NUMBER OF ATTENDEES :

UP TO 70 PEOPLE

RESERVATION
REQUIRED

KEN SASAKI

President of Hiroshima Kokusai Gakuin University

October, 1949      Born in Kure, Hiroshima prefecture, Japan

March, 1972      Graduated from Hiroshima University, Faculty of Engineering, Fermentation Engineering

April, 1972 - March, 1975      Trained and mastered Sake brewing at Tatsuuma-Honke Brewing Co., Ltd.

April, 1975 - March, 1980      Enrolled in Hiroshima University's Graduate School of Engineering, Institute of Engineering, Industrial Chemistry's master's and Ph.D. course

April, 1980 - present      Lecturer, assistant professor, and professor of Hiroshima Denki Institute of Technology

1993 - 1994      Worked as a visiting professor of Biotechnology at University of New South Wales in Sydney (for 13 months)

Doctor of Engineering, Professional Engineer (Bioengineering, General Engineering Management),
Certified Measurer of Environment

Over 30 years of research of the nation's famous water, and research of water purification with biotechnology

ALA-chan, a merchandise invented by his group in Hiroshima Kokusai Gakuin University is now available through Cosmo Oil Co., Ltd. and SBI Pharmaceuticals Co., Ltd. The product is used worldwide as agrichemical or medical drug.

Currently he has been engaging in the removal of radioactivity from soil in Fukushima.